

*The Neo-Calvinism
Research Institute*

Symposium Richard Mouw, 6 December 2019
St. Anna Chapel, NRI/TU Kampen

---

Symposium Richard Mouw, 6 December 2019 St. Anna Chapel, NRI/TU Kampen

The Neo-Calvinism Research Institute (NRI) kindly invites you to the symposium on Dr. Richard Mouw and his work on Friday morning 6 December 2019 in the St. Anna Chapel at the Theological University, Broederweg 15, Kampen.

Richard Mouw is President Emeritus of Fuller Theological Seminary in California, and a leading academic spokesman, author and teacher of the Neo-Calvinist tradition worldwide. This symposium is a tribute his work and roles in academia and the public arena, and has been organized on the occasion of the honorary doctorate of Dr. Mouw, to be conferred to him by the Theologische Universiteit in the afternoon of that same day.

Attendance is free of charge. Please register before 2 December at info@adckampen.nl. For information mail to: info@adckampen.nl or call 038 44 717 30.

Programma

10.00 Welcome reception

10.30 Roel Kuiper (rector TU) and George Harinck (director NRI), Opening

10.40 Al Wolters (Professor Emeritus of Religion and Theology/Classical Languages at Redeemer University College), Aspects of Mouw's Contribution to Neocalvinism in North America

11.55 Bart Cusveller (VIAA University of Applied Sciences Zwolle, Associate Research Fellow NRI), Richard Mouw as a Moral Philosopher

11.10 Marinus de Jong (Associate Research Fellow NRI), The Balancing Act Between Common and Particular Grace

11.25 Break

11.50 Jessica Joustra (Post-Doctoral Research Fellow NRI), One Generation will Call to the Next

12.05 Matthew Kaemingk (Assistant Professor of Christian Ethics and Associate Dean at Fuller Theological Seminary), Live What You Sing: Richard Mouw's Moral Leadership Through Liturgy

12.20 Richard Mouw, Response

12.45 Lunch